The Talk of Stamford Bridge

AFTER eight games we are the only unbeaten club in the Championship, a distinction we are naturally eager to preserve today against Leeds United, who stand right behind us. Wednesday night's win at Hillsborough, after twice being behind, earned a "best we have played this season" rating from Manager Tommy Docherty. The victory followed good news that afternoon of Frank Blunstone, who was told by the specialist that he should be training full out again in about a month. Yes, Wednesday was a good day—and a good night!

Bobby Tambling hoped to be back in action this afternoon after his tough afternoon last Saturday. He was still in a very dazed state that evening, and although by Sunday he was feeling much more himself again, when Monday came a further day in St. Stephen's was advised.

He has since been to Brighton for a few days' recuperation.

Our best results day of the season to date. That was last Saturday, when all four Chelsea sides were successful. In addition to our First Division win over Fulham, the Combination side beat Fulham 2-1 at Craven Cottage, and at Hendon our Youth section had two wins, 7-2 against Spurs in the morning and 3-2 against Crystal Palace in the afternoon.

On the move: Centre-forward Jimmy Mulholland left us this week to pursue his football career back home in Scotland. He has joined Morton, the club who won promotion to Scottish Division I in runaway style last season, and as part of the deal Billy Sinclair, Morton's promising 17-year-old inside-forward, has transferred to Chelsea. We wish Jimmy good luck and extend a warm welcome to Billy. He should feel thoroughly "at home" among the many Scots at Stamford Bridge.
