CAR BADGE

I FEEL, as an ardent Chelsea supporter, that car owners would welcome the introduction of a "Chelsea Supporters Badge".

As an "exile" now living in Lincoln (but still travelling down to see games) it would give me an additional opportunity of "spreading the gospel".

M. A. Harvey.

12, Beech Avenue,
Nettleham, nr. Lincoln.

● We understand that the Supporters' Club do have such a badge.

WHAT A TEAM!

I SEE that Chelsea have had ten English Internationals since the war, a total beaten only by Manchester United (16), Wolves (14) and Spurs (13).

What a great team they would have made: Bonetti; Shellito, P. Sillett; Armstrong, Bentley, Venables; Brabrook, Greaves, Lawton, Tambling, Blunstone.

Bonetti (Under-23s) is the odd man out, but will be in the full England team soon.

A. Foreman.

UNLUCKY COLOURS?

THIS season I have seen Chelsea play six times, and the two games they lost were against Burnley (0-1) and West Ham (0-3). Both clubs wear claret and blue and I wonder if these colours have always been unlucky for Chelsea?

David Hill.

38, The Dingle,
Hillingdon, Middlesex.

● We don't think so—last season we took three points off Burnley, beat Villa here and drew twice with West Ham.

CUP FINAL TICKETS

WHAT chance would the Chelsea supporter who travels to Stamford Bridge every week, and that includes me, have of getting a Cup Final ticket if Chelsea get to Wembley?

Every year many people who have travelled to home and away games, and cup ties and semi-finals must be satisfied with their armchairs and television sets instead of the atmosphere of a packed Wembley while disinterested parties enjoy front row seats.

D. McCleave.

99, Cavendish Road,
London, S.W.12

● The Football Association estimate that Wembley could be filled ten times over with the number of people who would like to see each Cup Final. If anyone can come up with a solution satisfactory to all, they will be delighted to hear.

If Chelsea get to Wembley, supporters with the most complete sets of coupons (see page 3) will be given priority in the distribution of Cup Final tickets.
