OUR GIRLS ARE TOPS . . .

I THINK this season's programme is tremendous and the "He's My Guy" feature seems very popular with the crowd around me.

It's amazing really how fans will take notice when the wife of a well-known person speaks about football, but more or less ignore their own families' feminine viewpoints!

With Stamford Bridge Stadium being modernized to match the team, I feel the quality of the programme is important and it's good to see that this season's is again ahead of the field.

● A lot of supporters have told us how much they enjoy reading the views of the "Girls behind the Boys in Blue".

CAN ANYONE HELP?

AFTER having my Chelsea Football Book No. 1 destroyed by accident, I am anxious to buy another to maintain my collection. If anybody has a copy of the first Chelsea Book to sell, I would be most grateful if they would contact me as soon as possible. I am willing to pay up to £2.50 for a copy in good condition.

Peter Collins.

Sutton, Surrey.

● Hope you're lucky, Peter—and all our fans can look out for the publication of Chelsea Book No. 3 at about the end of September. It will be on sale here at the Club Shop.

. . . AND WE'VE TWO STOKE GIRL FANS

WE attended the Chelsea v. Leeds game, and would like to say a very big thank-you to all those people who made August 12th a day to remember forever: Richard Miller for accompanying us to and from Stamford Bridge in safety, and the new friends we made—George, Alan, the boy from Slough, and all their friends. If any of them read this, we would welcome any letters.

Congratulations to Dave Sexton and the team for the great performance against Leeds. Good luck for the future and we hope to see you play in many more matches.

Always Chelsea fans.

YOUTH'S PLEA TO YOUTH

ON behalf of many young Chelsea supporters I would like to ask everyone to do all they can to curb this terrible "football vandalism". It means that many teenage supporters are unable to come to matches and watch the football, simply because their parents will not take the risk of them getting in a fight.

The pulling down of the Chelsea stands seems to have made matters worse. I ask all those responsible to stop this uncouth vandalism, so that everybody can come and watch good football in peace.

Marcus Newby (age 13).
