

ONE of football's great competitors, Micky Droy is a towering 6ft. 4½in. figure who seldom gives anything but a performance that matches his physique. Our 28-year-old captain is a man who cares deeply about Chelsea's fortunes, and how we missed him last season, when first a kidney operation and then a bad ankle injury restricted his first-team games to sixteen. Born at Highbury, Micky joined us from Slough Town in October 1970, and to date he has played a total of 190 senior games in our colours.
